

2004 - 9th America's Challenge Gas Balloon Race

The team of Richard Abruzzo and Gary Johnson (Team #18) are the winners in the Ninth America's Challenge Gas Balloon Race. They landed safely 3.2 miles northeast of Okmulgee, OK, about 8:15 AM MDT (1430Z).

The American team of David and Alan Levin (Team #4) finished second, landing near Guthrie, OK. The German team of Gerd Strasmann and Rainer Herkenhoff (Team #8) are the third-place winners.

The top three American pilots qualify to compete in next year's Coupe Aeronautique Gordon Bennett, one of the world's premier gas balloon competitions. The Gordon Bennett is traditionally held in the home country of the previous year's winner. An American team won the 2004 Gordon Bennett.
